I HAVE BUT THREE. When on my day of life the night is falling, And in the winds from unnumbered spaces blown I hear far voices out of darkness calling, My feet to paths unknown.

Thou who hast made my home of life so pleasant, Leave not its tenant when its walls decay.

O Love Divine, O Helper ever present, Be thou my strength and say I am from thee drifting.

Earth, shy, home's pictures, days of shade and shine, And kindly faces to my own uplifting The love which answers mine.

I have but thee, my Father! Let thy Spirit Be with me then to comfort and uphold; No gaze of pearl, no branch of palm I merit, Nor street of shining gold.

Some humble door among thy many mansions, Some sheltering shade where sin and striving cease, And flows forever through heaven's green expansions The river of thy peace.

There, from the music round about me swelling, I fain would learn the new and holy song, And find at last, beneath thy trees of healing, The life for which I long.

—John Greenleaf Whittier.

Literature Pays in Germany.

A prosperous writer in Germany of today is very comfortable indeed. For "The Augsburg" Gustav Freytag was paid 420,000 marks, which is $21,000. Suderman computes that he has already drawn royalties to the tune of $15,000. Freytag made $100,000 out of literature, and Ebers' novels circulate by the million and carry a royalty of a mark a copy.

"Lazaretto" Conditions of Hospitals.

Rudyard Kipling said at the inquiry in London that the hospital conditions in South Africa were "unspeakable," and then he went on and talked for two hours about them. That is like the nominating orator who says: "You all know this man," and immediately proceeded to tell you four columns about him.

Compound Means Inclosure.

The word "compound," which is used frequently in the war dispatches from China, means an inclosure. In that country and Japan it is customary to build high brick walls around factories, business houses, banks and residences for protection, and these are the "compounds" mentioned.

Deers Open Outward.

Greek and Roman doors invariably open outward; a person passing out of the house is therefore obliged to knock on the door before opening it, to avoid collision with a passer-by.

How He Cured the Bell.

The late Father Boyle, who for years was one of the most prominent and popular Catholic priests in Washington, had a great reputation as a wit. Some of his most intimate friends were Protestants and members of the Protestant clergy. A few months before his death he erected a missionary chapel down by the navy yard and bought at a junkshop an old bell which had been discarded by one of the Protestant churches. He sent the bell to a foundry in Georgetown and had several inches of metal pared off the rim. Having thus got rid of a crack, the harsh and discordant tones of the bell became soft and sweet. Meeting a Presbyterian minister not long after, Father Boyle called his attention to the change, and the latter could scarcely believe it was the same bell.

"What in the world did you do to that bell," inquired the Presbyterian pastor, "to cause such a change in the tone?"

"We blessed it and blessed it and blessed it until we got the Presbyterian devil out of it," retorted Father Boyle, "and then it sounded all right."
